

THE NEW CONSCIOUSNESS FOUNDATION COURSE

Summary

The Inlumino Global Foundation Course is intended for students who are committed both to their own personal and spiritual development and, as importantly, to assisting the transition of humanity as we move from being a society based on the self to being one based on altruism – the New Consciousness.

The course will give you the self-knowledge, skills and power to exemplify through the way you live and the way you are, what is to come for the world in the future. Not only can it deepen and transform the quality of your own life but, with this new knowledge and enlightenment you can directly and indirectly help others to maximise their enjoyment of their human journey and enliven their soul. By so doing you are helping to change the world.

The Seven Principles of the New Consciousness, which form the basis of the course, are an encapsulation of the universal, ageless, spiritual Wisdoms for modern times. It is time for them to be brought centre stage once again, as they were in the last great spiritual cycle, to be understood for their simplicity, effectiveness and perfectness and practised joyfully and naturally. It is a key part of the ascension blueprint for the planet, and of all of us who choose to be part of it.

The Foundation Course in the New Consciousness is not for everybody. It requires a level of human and spiritual understanding which can be rare to find. While all aspects of the course are voluntary, we would hope that you would dedicate at least one hour a day to course work and practice, and would carry with you throughout each day, as far as possible, an awareness of and focus on the teaching of the week or month.

The course itself lasts for six calendar months. Two courses will be run a year, depending on demand and suitability. Courses are created and led by Claire Montanaro, founder of Inlumino Global and facilitator for the New Consciousness.

Each month of the course will be focused on one particular Principle. Students will be immersed in the understanding, ethos and practice of that Principle for that month, and more widely, through:

- Study through the month of supplied instructional material, including recommended reading
- Daily prescribed meditation, practice and exercise
- The daily keeping of a journal of experience
- Participation in a guided audio-meditation channelled by Claire once monthly

- The (free) option of a half hour monthly tutorial/guidance session with Claire, months 1-5, by phone
- The (free) option of an hour's final tutorial with Claire by phone in the sixth month
- For those who wish it, there will be an invitation to join a weekend workshop on the New Consciousness, based on the course, at a later date at a discounted fee.

An application form is attached. If you are interested, please complete it and return it by e-mail or, signed, to:
